Arpin Group Hosts U.S. Women's Open Championship Event

East Greenwich, RI The Atlantic Ocean was the backdrop for the 61st U.S. Women's Open Championship hosted by the Newport Country Club in beautiful Newport, Rhode Island. As a Corporate Patron for this year's event, Arpin Group capitalized on the local venue to entertain its largest corporate clients in a setting of prestige and excellence while watching some of golf's greatest female players compete for the national championship.

Anikka Sorenstam

In addition to watching some exciting golf where Annika Sorenstam prevailed with her third Women's Open victory, guests were able to experience Newport's scenic coastline and historic landmarks on one of several dinner cruises hosted by David Arpin and the Business Development team.

The relaxed golf course setting provided a unique occasion to continue to build close one-on-one relationships with those whose affiliations are so important to the success of Arpin Group and its Agency family.
